The Republicans Carried the County by 6. 831, and Maynard Was 20,043 Hehind Bartlett-Only Four Democratic Aldermen Elected-The Next Board of Supervisors

Republican -- Mayor Boody on His Defea Brooklyn and Kings county probably felt the force of the political cyclone more severely than any other part of the country. The Democracy, which was supposed to have an invincible organization, received the worst knock-out in its history. Its candidates were overwhelmed in all directions. The State. Senate, Assembly, city, and county tickets shared indiscriminately in the general wreck. The only consolation the Democratic managers and their defeated candidates find is that the tidal wave swept over other Democratic strongholds in the State and country. Although badly whipped, the Democrats are not cast down, and their efforts will now be diand, very probably, effecting some party re organization.

Mayor Boody, who was completely snowed under, was at his office early. He made this Several causes, of course, united to pro duce the defeat here and elsewhere. The financial storm produced great disaster, and at such times men are apt to think that the general Government is responsible. The cry o bossism had great effect locally. The result showed that there is no foundation for this cry. The people rule in this country.

The Gravesend matter undoubtedly contributed largely to the result, both in this city and throughout the State. The people did not stop to think that it was local to the town of Gravesend, and that the city should not be held responsible. After the news reached the city of the events that transpired there all classes of citizens felt indignant, and there seemed no immediate way of showing their indignation except by voting against the Democratic ticket, however illogical that might be.

So long as the defeat has come, it is just as well that it should be complete; it carries the full responsibility to the other side. And I would say, as my last word before leaving the Mayor's chair, let my successor have a fair opportunity. Brooklyn will continue her march toward prosperity and greatness under any administration. Let none of us lose our love for our city and our desire to serve her interests because a party with which we did not affiliate is in power."

Chairman Thomas J. Kenna of the Demoeratic Campaign Committee said:

"The main cause of our defeat lies in the panic of the past year. It is not a defeat of the organization. It is an uprising of the people. who have come to believe that the dulness of trade, hard times, and lack of employmentare due to Democratic ascendancy. There is no need of any reorganization. No organization could withstand a tidal wave." Mayor-elect Schleren was deluged all day long with letters of congratulation. He said: My majority is beyond all my expectations. I hoped to win, but not by so big a majority. The Germans were true to me, and they will have proper recognition in every way from me. I have formed no definite plans as to my administration. I will endeavor to stop all abuses. The heads of departments will be men whose names, reputations, and characters will be a guarantee that the administration of affairs will be honest."

Mr. Schleren has gone South on a ten day's trip. He will take up the work of forming his cabinet directly after his return.
W. J. Gaynor, the successful candidate in the Second Judiciary district for Justice of the Supreme Court, whose victory over Thomas E. Pearsall was even more splendid than that of Mr. Schieren, was kept busy all day receiving the congratulations of his friends. He ent this letter to Mr. Schieren:

ent this letter to Mr. Schieren:

My Draw Mr. Senieren I congratulate you, and I congratulate the people of Brooklyn on electing a Hayor who has a keen perception of the difference between right and wrong, and who will stand by the right against everybody and everything else in the world, but here you know so well where my head and heart have open. I need hardly ear to you that I would be willing to exchange places with you. Very truly yours.

W. J. Garron.

Hugh McLaughlin, the veteran Democratic leader, refused to make any statement. His close friends said that he felt defeat very settley, and some of them thought ne might now retire from active nolliteal management. Tresident Seth Low of Columbia College sent this to Mr. Schlerin:

He manufacult tempraniate ver. It's magnificent. I congratulate you.

Speculation will soon be lively in reference to Mr. Schieren's cabinet. Aithough the Mngwumps who supported him so veciferously during the campaign saud that their action was inspired by ratriotism it is believed that they will ask for recognition, and one of them has already seen named as the probable Cor-poration Counsel. The Republican managers, however, are condident that Mr. Schieren will put only members of his own organization at the head of departments. This is the summary of the election:

The new Board of Aldermen will stand:

The new Board of Supervisors will probably be Republican by a majority of 1 or 2. The race for Supervisor at Large between George Kinkai (D.) and Thomas Fitchie (R.) was the closest in the canvass. Fitchie has a much smaller majority than any of his Republican associates, but it is regarded as a safe one and not likely to be changed by the official count. These are the police figures on the Mayoralty.

Schieren's plurality in 1893.

The election of George A. Owens, the Republican candidate for Senator in the Fourth district, was one of the surprises of the election.

Mr. Owens announced three or fours days before the election that he had declined the nomination, but he could not get his name off the ticket. He regarded his chances of success against Henator McCarren as so hopeless that he spent several nights canvassing the district in the interest of his opponent. He was the most surprised man in Brooklyn on Tuesday night when he heard of his election.

William Van Slooten, the Democratic candidate for Senator in the Fifth district, called last night at Folice Headquarters and claimed that he had been elected by a majority of 450 over Daniel Bradiey. The unofficial figures elect kradley by a small majority.

Senator John McCarty of the Sixth district, who has been recilected on the face of the returns, may be prevented from taking his seat. He was elected by the Gravesend vote, and if the movement which has been started to have this thrown out is successful. Henry Wolfert, his Republican competitor, will get the office. Republicans Inclined to Be Peevish About Wise's Befent in the Twenty-first. There never was a picnic on earth that hadn't its little drawbacks, and amid the rejoicings of the Republicans yesterday they had time to stop and bicker over the loss of their Assem-blyman in the Twenty-first district. These Republicans could not for the life of them understand how this district turned out so badly as far as the Assemblyman was concerned.

The critics told how Bartlett had beater Maynard in the district by 2.572, and how l'almer, the Republican candidate for Secretary of State, had beaten Cord Meyer, the Democratic candidate, 720 in the district, and yet Moses Herman, the Tammany candidate for Assemblyman, had defeated Otto Irving Wise by 67 votes. It is true that John Brooks Leavitt, the independent candidate for Assembly, received 1.801 votes, but the Republican critics declared that the figures show the normal Republican vote of the district to have been 3.772 and the normal majority 729.

Leavitt, it appears, got a good many Republican votes, because a number of Republicans believed that Wise was too recent a convert to Republicanism, and for the additional reason that for a year-old Republican to succeed in turning down Gen. Sam Thomas, Treasures of the Republican State Committee, as a delegate to the Syracuse Convention, and to come within one vote of doing the same for Chauncey M. Depew, was getting along a little too rapidly. There is trouble somewhere in the district, and it would appear that the authoritative criticism was:

"Every Democrat in the diamond-back Twenty-first Assembly district should salaam before the Republican managers of that brown-stone balliwick. These Solons turned the hore on William Leary on one of the bitterest days last January. Now, for the first time in its history, the district sends a Democrat to the Assembly. TUNNEL WON IN LONG ISLAND CITY. Republican Gains in Manufacturing Towns

In Queens County. In Queens county the Republicans developed their greatest strength in towns where manufactories are situated. In the town of Oyster Bay, where there are several factories, the usually large Democratic vote gave way to a small Republican majority. The same condition of affairs was shown in the town of Jamaica, which includes Woodhaven, where Jamaica, which includes Woodhaven, where the big factories of Lalance & Grosjean have been standing idle for several months.

The result is still in doubt in some cases, Justice Daniel Noble, who ran for District Attorney on the Democrat-Republican ticket against District Attorney John Fleming, regular Democrat, claims his election by 300 majority, but his claim is contested. Joseph Dykes (Dom.) believes he was reclected County Treusurer by 200 majority.

In Long Island City the Jeffersonian Democrats elected their entire city ticket with the exception of Supervisor. The question of a tunnel under Newtown Creek to connect Long Island City and Brooklyn entered into the election of Supervisor. Theodore Koehler (Dom.-Riep, was the promoter of the tunnel scheme, and he carried the city against the opponents to the tunnel by 744 majority.

Easex County Bond Trimmers Fear They Won't B- Paid,

Six weeks before election the Road Board of Fa-ex county appropriated $20,000 to be spent upon the county roads. Employment was given to a horde of party workers at trimming up the sides of all the avenues leading from Newark. They all seemed to regard the task as a political snar, and spent most of the time in growler rushing and idling. There was a panic in the ranks yesterday morning when the result of the election was known.

About 150 of the men assembled at the Court House, clamoring for their bay. Chairman Cahill, who was the only one who could sign their warrants, was away, and a riot seemed imminent. Somebody telephoned to Police Headquarters, and policemen went to the scene and cleared the men out.

ALBANY, Nov. 8.-Gov. Flower, speaking the result of the election in this State, said: "The returns show a large falling off in the Democratic vote in most of the industrial centres of the State, and this must be attributed to the business depression and the thousands of men out of work. Deputy Secretary of State Thomas E. Benedict thinks the defeat of the State ficket was in a large measure due to the overturning of the local Democracy of Kings county, for which it was itself responsible.

At 9:30 P. M. Gov. Flower said: "I concede the State to the Republicans by 20,000. They have also a majority in the Assembly, electing seventy-three Assemblymen, as near as I can get at it. The Senate is probably Republican, but still much in doubt. We have been unable here in find out just where the Kings county here to find out just where the Kings county Senators are. There are so many claimants to the prize which was to be given to the district leader in the Second Assembly district whose district cast the largest percentage vote for Maynard that it may not be given to any one. The district of James Divver, the Police Justice's son, cast the highest vote for Maynard, 512, but Bartlett received 8 votes, while four other leaders gave goose eggs to the Republican candidate. These are Michael C. Padden, Gerry Cronin. Patrick Foster, and Charles Aufforth. Padden's vote was 370, while the votes in other leaders' districts were below 300. Still they claim the prize, a gorgeous gold watch, now on exhibition at 101 Park row. A committee is to be appointed to decide on the conflicting claims.

WHAT WILL GAYNOR DO?

APPARENTLY NOT SO RAGER NOW TO PROSECUTE M'KANE.

Committee of Brooklynties to Do It for Him-He Gives Advice to Young Men-McKane Denies Contravening Judge Barnard's Order-Did the Republicans Give to Him the Appointment of the Original Watchers for Their Party! The people of Brooklyn did little yesterday but discuss the cold wave which submerged the town on election day. The victors were dazed by the size of the majorities; the defeated were doubly dazed; first, because they were beaten, and, secondly, because they were beaten out of sight, "left at the post on the Gravesend track," as one expressed it The usual crowd around the City Hall divided into small groups and talked about one candidate and another, and what caused this majority and what caused that.

Mr. William J. Gaynor's office in the Real Estate Exchange was thronged with callers during the early morning hours. There was no end of hand shaking, good wishes, and expressions of surprise over the earthquake. Mr. Gaynor was very tired, very nervous, and, as usual, very brusque. Quite naturally, the first questions after congratulations concerned the intentions which he had several times expressed of prosecuting McKane and his followers. Apparently Mr. Gaynor's enthusiasm on this subject had waned since his election, at least so far as his individual efforts ito. "Will you prosecute Mr. McKane?" asked a Sun reporter "If I do, I will not prosecute him in the newspapers, but in the courts," replied Mr. Gaynor. Later, Mr. Gaynor said: "If I came to be a man of some consideration in Brooklyn it was unconsciously to myself. I had no motive of object except to do right. The plain people of Brooklyn understood me from the start, and they sustained my cause at the polls. Within the boundaries of right and justice I shall always remember them. I understood them and they understood me. The exalted office to which I am elected came to me. I did not seek it. I advise all young men of Brooklyn to preserve their honor and identity. I say to them, do right, and let the future take care of itself. If they stand by the right the right will stand by them. Let them not be mere followers and sycophants of low, greedy, and selfish men, who use politics only for the purposes of corruption and private gain. Let them be true to the people, and not mere ob-sequious beggars of those who could not have the disposition of offices under any system where manhood, worth, and education were where manhood, worth, and education were paramount.

While it is not known whether Mr. Gaynor will make a personal issue of the case with Mr. Mchane in the courts, the maker will be kept before the public in some form. A meeting of Brooklyn citizens will be held at the Academy of Music on Saturday evening to protest against the Gravesend outrage.

A number of the Republicans and Independent Democrats who have been prominent in the campaign in Brooklyn met last night for the purpose of starting a movement looking to the proposecution of John V. Mckane. Among them were ex-Judge George G. Reynoids, Elijah R. Kennedy, Willis L. Ogden, Henry K. Steidon, Ardrew D. Baird, James McKeen, Charles A. Moore, W. G. Low, James McKeen, Charles A. Moore, W. G. Low, James McMahon, John O'Connell, W. H. Nichols, Edward M. Shepard, Thomas G. Shearman, and A. Augustus Healey, that Mr. Gaynor, should not

M. Shepard, Thomas G. Shearman, and A. Augustus ifadiov.

It was decided that Mr. Gaynor should not be compelled to carry on the legal contest growing out of the alleged Gravesend outrage. The general opinion was that the citzens at large, irrespective of party, should take up the prosecution of the guilty parties, it was resolved to appoint a committee of three to confer with other organizations on the subject. There are two possible methods of bringing the subject.

There are two possible methods of bringing the case in the courts.

The first course, it is said, would be to bring these men to answer for contempt of court. On Monday Judge Barnard at Foughkeepsie issued an order restraining McKane and his policemen from interfering with watchers at the Gravesend poils who had been regularly appeinted by the Kings County Republican Committee, its Chairman, or its officers.

On the morning of election day Col. Alexander S. Bacon, armed with this injunction, went down to Gravesend to serve the paper. He was accompanied by a number of Republicans who were to act as watchers. The story of the row that followed was told in yesterday's Sun. Some of the watchers turned back to Brooklyn; others, including Col. Bacon, went to Gravesend. Col. Bacon insists that he touched Chief McKane's body with the paper, thus making a service. Although his lawyer acknowledges its service, Chief McKane says he was not served with the writ of injunction, and adds, rather inconsistently, that the order of Judge Barnard was complied with.

He repeated yesterday the statement he had previously made that the Republican watchers on duty at the Gravesend polls were regularly He repeated yesterday the statement he had previously made that the lieutoblican watchers on duty at the Gravesend polls were regularly appointed by William J. Buttling and A. Wray, President and secretary of the Republican County Committee, and were further endersed by the local Republican Association. Mr. McKane added that no reference was made in the injunction to the watchers sent down by Mr. Gaynor, and that he was not aware that the Republican County Committee issued two

Mr. McKane added that no reference was made in the injunction to the watehers sent down by Mr. Gayner, and that he was not aware that the Republican County Committee issued two sets of appointments for watchers. He said further that he was not such an idiot as to throw himself into the meshes of the law in the way attributed to him.

Concerning the result of the election, Mr. McKane said that the defeat was due in a great measure to the effect of the hard times upon the people. The voters placed the responsibility on the party in power: if the Republicans had been in power under the same conditions, they would have been defeated as badly as the Democrate.

He added that it was nonsensical to think that the affair in Graveseed had any effect upon the result in Kings county, since the results showed that there had been a general slump all over the country.

Brooklyn Republicans say that, besides punishing McKane for his contempt of court, he and his followers will be sued for heavy damages by the fourteen men sent down to Gravesend Saturday evening to examine the registry list who were locked up by McKane and his men. This list is, of course, supplemented by the injunction servers who were ill-treated at Gravesend on election morning.

There was something of a surprise in Brooklyn resterday afternoon when the seven election inspectors at Gravesend, who avoided service of warrants on Saturday, gave themselves up and were released on bail. These men ard, H. Cropser, Nicholas Bader, Benjamin Cohen, Harlan Crandall, M. F. Ryan, Conrad Stubenbord, and H. A. Brownhill. When Mr. Gaynor decided that he could not get a copy of the registry lists without authority of law, he secured warrants for these inspectors and for Nicholas J Johnson, Chairman of the Board in the Sixth district. Johnson surrendered himself and was a amitted to $2,000 bail, which was furnished by N. Nirker Williamson and John H. Cook of Coney Island and Contracted in the others could not be found.

A prominent Republican explained the matter to a SUN reporter yesterday at Republican headquarters on Lawrence street. Brockiva. The certificates, he said, are signed by Measrs. Buttling and Wray, and issued in blank form to the Republican leaders of the district, who fill them out with the names of their most trustworthy men. The thing is done in this way because the leaders themseives are more apt to know who are the best men in their districts to do the work than the members of the General Committee. There is not much of a Republican party in Gravesend, but the little force that is there is estensibly led by a man named Strackner. The certificates that McKanes said were issued to him were, according to The Sun's informant, issued to Strackner. What Strackner did with them is not known.

The greater part of the Republican party in Gravesend are Republicans in name only. They are in reality McKaneites and go with that statesman's machine, whichever way thappens to flop. The impression at Republican Headquarters in Brooklyn resterday was that Strackner turned his certificates over to McKane and that McKane filled them out with the names of his own men, thus turning the Republican inspectorship, so far as Gravesend was concerned, into a farce. side.

Judge Bareard Decition to Prejudge th Case, but Bays McKane Acted Hiegally. POUGHEEPSIE, Nov. 8.—Judge Barnard was interviewed at his home in this city to-night. What is your opinion of McKane's action at Gravesend on election day?" he was asked. "I do not know that he has acted in any other way than he should have acted, but I do know that a suit was commenced charging that cortain parties threatened to interfere with certain other parties at Gravesend and an injunction was issued to prevent such inter ference." "Well, Judge, what course is pursued when

Well, Judge, what course is pursued when an order issued from the Supreme Court by you or any other Judge is disregarded?"

An affidavit is produced showing a disbedience of the order. Then notice is given to the party charged to answer, and when the answer is received and the parties can produce evidence the case will be decided, like other cases, from the evidence."

"Have you read the details of the trouble at Gravescool?"

"Have you read the details of the trouble at Gravescoil?"
No. I have read nothing about it, with the exception of a few headlines in the l'ough-keepsie kaple this morning."
Did McKane act legally when he arrested Col. Bacon?
"I do not know that he did arrest Col. Bacon, and, furthermore, I do not care to passjudgment upon a case before it is brought into the courts. When that time arrives it will be public, and then my opinion will be freely expressed." "But, Judge, if McKane did arrest Col. Bacon, was not that, in your repinion, illegal?"

"My private opinion is that McKane acted diagrally. He certainly did if he arrested Col. Bacon." This closed the interview. It is known that to-day Judge Barnard expressed in severe terms his opinion relative to McKane's acts while in social conversation with others.

ELECTION INSPECTORS ARRESTED. They Opened the Ballot Box to Tear Off the

NORTHPORT, L. L. Nov. 8.-Two of the inspectors of election at King's Park, L. I., were arrested to-day by order of, County Judge Wilmot Smith of Riverhead on a charge of tampering with the ballot box. The Board consists of three men, two Democrats and one Resists of three men, two Democrats and one Republican.

Yesterday morning sixty-five votes had been polled when the inspectors remembered that they had not detached the stubs from the bailots. The two Democrats wanted to open the box and tear off the stubs, but the Republican objected. When the Republican went to dinner the other two, Edward Smith and Edward Nichols, opened the ballot box and forcoff the stubs, replacing the ballots.
A telegram was sent to County Judge Smith, who immediately ordered their arrest. The inspectors are also accused of putting pasters on the ballots.

REPUBLICAN GAINS IN MARYLAND Several Countles Swept by Them in the Western Part of the State. BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.-The Republicans made gains throughout Maryland yesterday. The only State officer voted for was Comptroller. Marion De Kalb Smith, Democrat, was rediccted by about 18,000 plurality. Two years ago he had a plurality of 20,000. The Republicans swept the western Marsland counties, Frederick. Washington, Allegany, and Garrett, and also elected their entire ticket in Somer set county. Charles county elects a Republican Senator (ex-Congressman Mudd) and two members of the Legislature. The next Legislature will probably have 3 Republican Senators and 23 Republican Representatives, a ters and 23 Republican Representatives, a gain of 18.

The Democrats elected all of their judicial candidates. In Baltimore city Judges Ritchie and Wickes defeated Wright and Pond for the Supreme bench. Boyd defeated Richmond in the Fourth district for the Court of Appeals, Page and Lloyd won over Hodson and Waddell in the First district, and Roberts and Revell had no opposition in the Fifth district.

Mayor Latrobe was reflected in Baltimore over Malster (Rep.) and Schultz (Ind.). Latrobe has been Mayor six times, but never before succeeded himself. The Republican gained five seats in the City Council, but it is still overwhelmingly Democratic.

The Virginia Returns Show that They Elected Very Few Legislators. RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 8 .- Returns thus far of the election held in this State yesterday have been reported by majorities, and, therefore, it is impossible to tell even approximately the number of votes cast. Two things are certain. One is that the Democrats did not poll their One is that the Democrats did not poll their usual strength, and the other is that the Republicans did not support the Populists largely. Official and unofficial returns indicate that the Democrats have carried 23 Senatorial districts, the Populists one, and one district is still in doubt. The Democrats have 15 members of the Senate who hold over. Of the members elected to the House of Delegates the Democrats will probably have 90 out of the 100 elected. Indications lead to the belief that the Democratic majority on the State ticket will reach 50,000.

JUDGE GARY'S BIG FICTORY.

Chicago's Vote Puts Him Far Ahead of the CHICAGO, Nov. 8.-The result of yesterday's battle at the polls in Cook county is the reelection of Joseph E. Gary as Judge of the Superior Court for the seventh time, the election of eight other Republican Judges and one Democratic Judge, and the election of the one Democrates suge, and accelerate of the full Republican ticket for County Commis-sioners. Judge Gary's majority over the can-didate receiving the lighest vote on the Democratic ticket for Superior Court Judge is more than 8,000. He ran nearly 7,000 votes ahead of Nathaniel C. Sears, who is the next lighest on the Republican ticket, and nearly 13,000 votes ahead of J. Henry Kratt.

Later Returns from Nebraska. OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 8.-Returns from the State are coming in slowly, and seem to indicate, after all, the election of Holcomb (Pop.) for Supreme Judge by 5,000 over Harrison (Rep.). Frank Irvine (Dem.) ran well here, but seems to have been cut hadly by free silver Democrats, who voted for Holcomb, as did ver Democrats, who voted for Holcomb, as did many anti-monoply Republicans.

The Republican's have carried this city by a large plurality, George P. Bemis (Rep.) for Mayor received about 1,500 votes more than Bedford (Dem.), although the Republican strength was divided. Republicans also carry the county and make gains in other cities, but the Populists gain even more in the country districts. districts.

Mayor Pingree's Victory in Detroit, DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 8 .- Corrected returns this morning show that Mayor Pingree swept the city by over 5,000 majority and has carried the entire Republican city ticket through with him. Pingree ran far ahead of his ticket. In the First Congress district. Griffin (Dem.) is elected by between 1,000 and 1,500 majority.

End of the Auti-Mormon Party.

BALT LARR, Utah, Nov. 8.-Utah has gone largely Democratic, the returns indicating a safe majority for the party in the Legislature. Salt Lake City municipal election over-shadowed in interest the territorial, the city being redeemed from liberal rule by the elec-tion of Mayor Basmin, the nominee of the citi-gens party, regardless of religion and politics. This finally ends the Anti-Mormon party in Utah.

BACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 8 - Mayor B. U. Steinman, Dem., has been reflected by 1.148 majority over W. F. Knox. Rep. The rest of the municipal ticket is divided among Republicans and Democrats.

inferior furniture. A great mistake; none sell finer goods, none show such bright, fresh stock all the time. We never have room to keep an article until it becomes old. Twice a year we clean up, that room may be had to display the samples of new styles in progress. When the regular retailers simply in dull times abstain from buying, we must keep our factories run ning, so we quickly sell any surplus while it is still new. THEY WHO OMIT TO SEE THE BAR. HULLY GEE!

Come and See-Bradley, Him of Asburce Whooping Up His Victores.

ASBURY PARK, Nov. 8.- This town and Ocean Grove have been rocking with excitement ever since the polis closed last night. All of the occupied buildings are gay with bunting of all kinds, and to-night an immense street parade is being held by the rejoicing Fusionists. The happiest man in the town is State Senatorelect James A. Bradley.

It was after I o'clock this morning when it became positively known that Founder Bradley had been elected. When the news reached Central Hall, where Mr. Bradley and his supporters were receiving the returns. the people whooped and yelled at the top of their voices. They embraced each other and wept with delight. Men went out and called out the bands and drum corps. Several hundred men and boys with a band and Mr. Bradley at the head swept down Cookman avenue to the ocean, blowing all sorts of instruments and swinging big rattles. The clamorous and swinging hig rattles. The clamorous crowl went over into Ocean Grove and serenaded the Rev. Dr. Stokes, the President of the Camp Meeting Association. The venerable clergyman arose and dressed himself and made a speech from the stoop of his cottage. The crowd then sang the loxology. The noise was heard haif a mile away. It was 4 o'clock before the people retired to their homes. At daylight the people began decorating their houses and pinces of business. Then, at 0 o'clock, two or three men armed with brooms went down to Mr. Bradley's house with a band, and cheered and howled until they were houses. This afternoon there was parade of mounted men, headed by a tally-ho coach loaded with citizens.

The parade started this evening is a rousing one. It is nearly a mile in length, and is composed of men and boys dressed in all sorts of grotesquely frimmed suits and hats of varied hues and patterns. Among the favorite emblems worn are roosters and Mr. Bradley's pietures on ribbons and cards. Nearly every one of the paraders carries a broom and a big tin horn. There are barrels of tar biazing in Railrond square and at the corners of the principal streets. Rockets are whitzing through the streets are packed with reople, hundreds of whom have driven in from all parts of the surrounding country. Mr. Bradley is ridding at the head of the parade in his private coach.

A noticeable feature of the hullabaloo was the total absence of the respectable college. private coach.

Plans of the Way They Expect to Win Their Congress Delegations to Their Views, BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 8.-The Committee of the Commercial Club are working hard on the memorial which they will present to the Ways and Means Committee at Washington relative to the tariff on coal and iron. They will present abundant statistics and arguments why these articles should not be put on the free list. The memorial will be forwarded probably to-morrow.

The two Alabama Senators will be here next week, and an effort will be made to get every Congressman in the State to come here. When they get together facts and statistics will be Congressman in the State to come here. When they get together facts and statistics will be presented to set them figuring.

They will be told that free iron and coal will practically ruin this district, and an enormous petition, signed by thousands, will be presented asking united support in keeping the tariff on coal and iron. It is believed that the Congress delegation will go before the Ways and Means Committee in a body and endorse the memorial.

Pleasant Pelists do the most good. They are tiny, sugar coated pills, scarcely larger than mustard seed, made of concentrated botanical extracts. These "Peliets" are easily dissolved in the stomach and absorbed into the blood, stimulating a flow of bile from the liver, and arousing to activity all the glandular secretions. Thus they act in nature's own way.

They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money refunded, in all Billous Attacks, in Bick Headache, Constipation, Dizziness, and Indigestion.

JERSEY DEMOCRATS ROUTED.

REPUBLICANS HAVE THE LEGISLA-TURE BY 21 ON JOINT BALLOT.

The Victors Will Bounce Democratic Emplorees, Elect R publican State Officers, Curtail the Governor's Power, Reform

City Government, Drive Out the Race Tracks, and Recopportion the State, Jersey Democrats were fully engaged yesterday in explaining why their ticket was so badly beaten on Tuesday, and they could not agree that any one factor was responsible for the result. Eace track legislation had mest to do with it. No doubt the coal combine legislation of winter before last had something, too; but there were other reasons for the surprising flop, and Senator James Smith, Jr. thinks that hard times had all to do with it. The State is certainly Republican in both branches of the Legislature, and this means a great deal to Jersey City and Newark. These cities have been redistricted by the Democrate in a manner which seemed to promise the party eternal supremacy, and laws were made creating Street and Water Boards and Superintendents of the Fire and Police Departments. The Democrats bit off more than they could chew, however, and aroused a resentment which has shown itself in this election as a protest against arrogant government. The quiet element, consisting of Republicans and resentful Democrats, went to the polls on Tuesday for the purposes of administering a rebuke to the men who gerrymandered the

from the people. This feeling was thoroughly understood by the leaders, and they thought that they had taken measures to override it, but they did not appreciate its proportions. Essex county elected a Republican Sheriff by a plurality of 4,000.

The Democratic Sheriff whom he succeeds was elected in 1890 by nearly 3,000. Sheriff Lehlbach carried the city of Newark by 55t plurality, while Barret (Dem.) for Senator won in the city by 124 and lost in the whole county by 2,500.

The surprises on the Assembly ticket in Easex were the defeat of Armitage (Dem.) by Duncan (tep.), Urich (Dem.) by Eisele (Rep.), and Kearns (Dem.) by Edwards (Rep.). These were all regarded as districts in which the party was strongly intrenched. Kearns may get in on a contest.

Indignation against Bob Davis and Dennis Meiaughlin, as well as other arrogant bosses, secured the election of Sheriff Toffey, Republican, in Hudson county. The vote of Col. Toffey was phenomenal. The county has a normal Democratic majority of 5,000. Col. Toffey's plurality is 5,200. This means a change of 10,000 votes, something unprecedented in the history of Hudson county politics.

Anthony J. Volk, the Republican candidate for Corener, has a plurality of 5,154.

Complete returns of the vote for Assemblymen elect six Democratis and five Kenublicans. Henry H. Holmes, the Republican candidate, who was deleated in the Third district by 3si votes, proposes to contest the election of Thomas Eagan and have a recount.

Michael J. Coyle, who was elected to the Assembly from the Ninth district, got something of a shock when the returns were being counted. The district has a Democratic majority of about 1,600, and Coyle received the full majority when he ran previously. One year he received something like 1,900 majority. This time the Republicans were unable to persuade anybody to accept the nomination, and Mr. Coyle volunteered to get a candidate for them. He picked out Clement de R. Leonard teach is expenses, and it is said that he paid the assessment levied upon the candidate by the Republican County Committee. Coyle told all his friends what a lot of fun he was going to have with his opponents.

On election night when the returns began to come in Mr. Coyle listened to them. smilling in the anticipation of lea Essex, Hudson, Cape May, Passale, Ocean, and Gloucester.

There has been a story current for several days that "Billy" Thompson, the Duke of Gloucester, who was reelected in Camden county, has never been naturalized. This has been asserted with so much positiveness and so frequently that the Republicans have decided to investigate the matter. Of course, if found to be true, the Duke will not be allowed to sit in the Assembly next winter, and Tom Flynn, the starter at his race track, who was speaker of the House last year, may also have to prove his right to a seat. It is alleged that he has been for a long time and is still a resident of Philadelphia. He has been returned to the Legislature from a Passale county district. If he is not a bona fide resident of New Jersey, he will not be sworn in next January as a member of the Legislature. The terms of State Treasurer the Legislature. The terms of State Treasur the Legislature. The terms of blate Treasurer Gray and State Comptroller Heppenheimer expire in a few months, and Republican candidates for those offices are already springing up. The Legislature will probably repeat the law creating the office of Superintendent of the State House, and if it does, "Barney" Ford of Newark will have to look up another sinceure.

Ford of Newark will have to look up another sinecure.

The Republican majority in the Legislature will wire out the Democratic Assembly district gerrymander as well as the race track gambling laws. The Jury Commission, the Sunset Election, and the Local Option laws will be reënacted, and the Bailot Reform law will be amended in numerous particulars. All the Democratic employees at the State House will be turned down.

The next session of the Legislature will be along and busy one. The Governor will be shorn of much power, and the preliminaries all arranged for the election of Gen. William Joyce Sewell as United States Senator to succeed John Roderick McPherson, whose term expires in 1865.

The Legislature of 1894 will be composed as follows:
